

Carolina Serra

PARTNER

 (+54 11) 4379 6830

 cserra@beccarvarela.com

KEY PRACTICE AREAS

Trusts & Trust Services, Mergers & Acquisitions/Corporate, Banking & Financial Institutions

Carolina Serra is a partner at Beccar Varela. She joined the firm in October 2005.

Her practice areas include company law, mergers & acquisitions and banks & financial institutions. She has ample expertise advising both national and international companies on complex corporate law issues and on mergers and acquisitions. Over the past years, she has also counseled on complex financial transactions, including advice in syndicated loans and to the International Finance Corporation (IFC).

Carolina has participated in the structuring and day-to-day advice in many of the trusts held by Fideicomisos y Mandatos S.A., a trust services company owned by our firm which acts as trustee/escrow agent in transactions where clients require those services.

Carolina obtained her Law degree from Universidad de Buenos Aires (2006). She conducted postgraduate studies in Law and Economics at the Universidad Torcuato Di Tella and Arizona State University (2010). She worked as foreign associate at Kirkland & Ellis LLP (New York, USA, 2016-2017).

She is a member of the Buenos Aires Bar Association and the International Bar Association.

Carolina has been recognized by The Legal 500.

She speaks Spanish, English and Italian.