

Martín Gastaldi

PARTNER

 (+54 11) 4379 6843

 mgastaldi@beccarvarela.com

KEY PRACTICE AREAS

Bankruptcy, Insolvency & Restructuring, Dispute Resolution: Litigation, Product Liability

Martín Gastaldi is a partner at Beccar Varela, having joined the firm in 1997. He co-heads the firm's Bankruptcy, Insolvency & Restructuring Department and the Dispute Resolution: Litigation Department.

His practice areas include complex litigation in both civil and commercial trials and disputes, rehabilitation bankruptcy (Chapter11), liquidation bankruptcy (Chapter7) and debt restructurings. He has represented domestic and foreign clients in complex litigation and corporate reorganizations as attorney for corporations and large local and international banks, as well as disputes over ineffective operations, extensions to bankruptcy and liability actions. He has been involved in complex disputes related to various industries, such as contract disputes, corporate, family, damages, agency and distribution contracts, banking and guarantees, among others. He also provides legal advice in corporate issues, commercial matters and insolvency of local and foreign companies registered and operating in Argentina.

Martín graduated from the Universidad de Buenos Aires (1993) School of Law, majoring in business law. He achieved postgraduate degrees in Business Consulting and Bankruptcy Law at the Universidad Católica Argentina (1995) and in Businesses in Crisis at the Universidad de Buenos Aires (1994).

Since 2013, he is the Deputy Bankruptcy Professor at the Universidad Católica Argentina, and of the Securities and Exchange LL.M. classes since 2014.

He is a member of the Buenos Aires Bar Association and the Province of Buenos Aires Bar Association, as well as the International Bar Association (IBA).

Martín has been recognized by Chambers Latin America, Chambers Global, The Legal 500, Latin Lawyer 250, LACCA Approved, Leaders League and Benchmark Latin America.

He speaks Spanish and English.