

Fiat retains Beccar Varela for debt issuance

Friday, 9 May 2014 (6 hours ago) by Thomas Muskett-Ford

Estudio Beccar Varela has acted as deal counsel in the issuance of notes worth US$19.9 million by the Argentine financial arm of Italian car manufacturer Fiat.

Banco de Galicia y Buenos Aires acted as organiser and joint-placement agent in combination with Banco Santander Río. The transaction closed on 4 April.

The issuer, Fiat Crédito Compañía Financiera, provides credit to local residents and industries interested in buying the company's vehicles and machinery. The company has turned to Beccar Varela before with the last deal reported by Latin Lawyer closing in August last year.
